Normal hours of work (excluding overtime) _____

(If the total number of hours worked by the part-time employee calculated over a year equal or exceed those of a comparable wholetime employee, then that employee shall thenceforth be considered as a whole-time employee.)

Public Holidays (pro rata)	When a Public Holiday falls on any day of the week (from Monday to Sunday) and the part-time employee is not scheduled to work on such day as part of the normal weekly roster (being an off day of the employee), the equivalent in hours of one working day pro rata is to be added to the employee's vacation leave entitlement. Such extra day of vacation leave equivalent in hours of one working day pro rata is to be added to the employee's vacation leave entitlement on the day of such Public Holiday.
Vacation Leave (pro rata)	The pro-rata is calculated as the proportion that the number of weekly hours worked by the part-time employee bears to the number of the normal weekly hours worked by a full-time employee performing same work. In case where the working hours of a part-timer are based on irregular weekly working hours, the pro-rata is calculated over the average of hours worked over a period of 13 weeks (Quarterly: January to March; April to June; July to September; October to December).
Sick Leave (pro rata)	As from commencement date, a part-time employee shall in every calendar year be entitled to the pro rata equivalent in hours of 12 days (96 hours) sick leave on full pay, and a further 36 days (288 hours) on half pay. (In occasions of sickness, a medical certificate has to be presented to the employer on the day of return to work or, if such period of sickness is longer than seven days, within seven days of the commencement of sick leave absence. The employer shall have the right to send a medical practitioner to visit and examine an employee who is on sick leave.)
Other Leave (pro rata)	Paternal Leave: 10 days on full pay Parental leave: 4 months Marriage Leave: 3 days on full pay Bereavement Leave: 3 days on full pay Urgent Family Leave: The first 16 hours are deducted from the employee's vacation leave entitlement. The remaining 16 hours are deducted from the employee's paid sick leave entitlement.

Injury Leave:	Up to one year injury leave on full pay.
Jury Service Leave:	Whole-time employees called for jury service shall be allowed all the necessary time off on full pay to attend such service at the Court.

Termination of contract

Where there is not a justified reason to terminate an employment that is on definite basis after the probation period, the party who breaches the contract is liable to pay the other party a sum equal to the pro rata of one-half of the full wages that would have accrued had the contract of employment remained in force.
